

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction: Who is G.E. Lessing and What is this Book About?	13

PART I: SEEING AND IMAGES—THEORETICAL CONCERNS

Chapter 1: Lessing: Ekphrasis and the Art of Understatement	31
Chapter 2: Diderot and Lessing: Minimalism and Sketches	65
Chapter 3: Fables as Visual Texts but Brevity Matters.....	85
Chapter 4: Lessing’s Laokoon and Paralipomena	107
Chapter 5: Drama Theory: Lessing’s Hamburg Dramaturgy as Fermenta cognitionis	139

PART II: EXPERIMENTS AND STAGING POIGNANT MOMENTS

Chapter 6: The Matron of Ephesus (1748–1771): Expressing Introversion	167
Chapter 7: Miß Sara Sampson (1755): Exhibiting Emotions and Problems with Wordiness.....	189
Chapter 8: D. Faust and Fatime (1755–1759): Time Split and the Speed of the Real.....	221
Chapter 9: Minna von Barnhelm (1767): Unemployment and Staging the Self for Other(s)	245
Chapter 10: Emilia Galotti (1772): Portraits and Displacements	271

PART III: VISUAL-VERBAL DYNAMICS IN LESSING’S LATE WORKS

Chapter 11: Ernst and Falk (1778): Lessing’s Metaphor “Wolfsmilchraupe”	307
Chapter 12: A Parable of the Burning Palace (1778): Lessing and Eco	331
Chapter 13: Nathan the Wise (1779): Search for the Ring and the Missing Queen in the Chess Game	355
Chapter 14: The Education of Humankind (1780): Why Lessing Chose the Left Hand	377
Bibliography	395
Index	421